Hola Company Feb 2023
Laravel Backend Developer Elsoadia

I work for a company specializing in Information Technology, Operations, and Electronic Payment Gateways. My role is remote, and I've gained proficiency in various areas, including using Pusher to facilitate real-time notifications. Additionally, I've honed my skills in developing applications with real-time chat functionality. My expertise extends to integrating WhatsApp API for creating chatbots and leveraging Slack API for receiving messages, which are then seamlessly transmitted via webhooks to WhatsApp.
